Report on the Awareness Program

"Breaking Silence: Confronting Workplace Sexual Harassment"

Organized by:

Gender Sensitization Cell, Holy Cross College, Agartala

Objective

Educate Individuals on Sexual Harassment. Explain what constitutes sexual harassment, covering its various forms such as verbal, physical, and non-verbal behaviors. Help individuals recognize and identify instances of harassment. Facilitate Open Discussions: Create channels for addressing concerns, questions, and misconceptions about sexual harassment. Foster a supportive environment for victims and survivors.

The 'Breaking Silence: Confronting Workplace Sexual Harassment' program was a significant step towards raising awareness and educating individuals about the critical issue of workplace sexual harassment. The insights provided by the esteemed speakers, Smt. Madhumita Choudhury and Smt. Debasmita Chakraborty, were invaluable in understanding the legal and practical aspects of tackling harassment. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the speakers, organizers, and participants for their active involvement and commitment to creating a safer work environment. The "Breaking Silence: Confronting Workplace Sexual Harassment" awareness program, organized by the Gender Sensitization Cell of Holy Cross College, Agartala, aimed to educate participants on the different forms of sexual harassment and foster an environment where open discussions could take place. The program featured special lectures from distinguished speakers, including Smt. Madhumita Choudhury, and provided a platform for addressing the issues and concerns related to sexual harassment in the workplace.

This initiative is a step towards creating a safer and more supportive workplace environment, where victims and survivors feel heard and supported. The participation of esteemed speakers and facilitators underscores the commitment of Holy Cross College to addressing and mitigating workplace sexual harassment through education and open dialogue.
